Council Transacts Little Business.

The City Council in regular session last night transacted but little business. The finance committee asked for more time to make a report on the proposition of the Board of Trustees of the W. W. Massie Memorial Hospital for the city to make an appropriation to assist in maintaining the institution.

Upon motion of Councilman Kenney and by the unanimous vote of the Council it was ordered that the Paris Gas and Electric Co., which is now substituting electric street lights for the old gas burners, be requested to maintain the gas lights in use and after May 1 assume the payment of the salary of the street lamplighter.

Messrs. A. L. Slicer and S. W. Summers presented to the Board a petition from a number of property holders on South Main street, protesting against the erection of an addition to a stable owned by Calwood & McClintock.

The improvement committee was ordered to confer with the owners of the property in an effort to induce them to erect the structure in the rear of the present building. A permit for the new structure was granted several weeks ago.

Through Councilman Parrish, who presented figures to the Board showing in the past few years and in the face of the many improvements made in the city there had been no material increase in the city's assessment, an order was obtained to instruct the City Assessor to give careful attention to taking the assessment of the property in the city this year.

A number of building permits were granted and the usual number of accounts were allowed.

Police Judge E. B. January submitted his report for the month of March, which is as follows: Amount of fines assessed, $77.50; amount repaid, $10.50; fines collected, $98; suspended, $20; worked out, $12.50.

Prof. George W. Chapman, Superintendent of the Paris Public School last night tendered his resignation to the Board of Education to become effective at the close of the present term of school, which is in June.

The Board of Education met at the school building last night to consider the resignation. The matter was brought to the attention of the Board at a conference held Wednesday.

When the News went to press last night the Board was still in session. It is not known who will be selected as the successor to Prof. Chapman, who it is understood has been elected to the superintendency of a school in Georgia.

Sturdevant Acquitted at Examining Trial.

Lee Sturdevant, charged with killing Henry Story, colored, at the construction camp of Hough & Spradling near this city, several months ago, was acquitted at his examining trial in the county court Wednesday afternoon before Judge Denis Dundon. The negro through his attorney, Mr. Wade Whitley, entered a plea of self defense, which was substantiated by the evidence introduced at the examination. The killing occurred on the night of October 27 last year, following an argument over a game of cards. It developed at the trial that a number of negroes were engaged in both card and crap games in one of the shanties at the camp, and Story, losing all of his money in one of the games became very abusive toward Sturdevant. It was also brought out at the trial that Story blew out the lamp in the house, and flourishing his revolver in a reckless manner frightened the inmates, who fled from the building.

When on the outside Story drew his revolver and fired two shots in the direction of Sturdevant, who it appeared was leaving the camp, when the latter returned the fire, emptying three chambers of his revolver. One bullet took effect in Story's head, inflicting a wound from which he died at a Lexington hospital several days later.

After hearing the evidence Judge Dundon dismissed the warrant against Sturdevant. At the instance of County Attorney George Batterton a warrant charging him with carrying concealed weapons was issued. This warrant was also dismissed by Judge Dundon, who held that the evidence introduced did not support the charge as none of the witnesses had seen Sturdevant with a revolver in the house and failed to see him draw the weapon when he fired in defense of his life.

Sturdevant, who was employed at the camp of D. B. Lacy & Son, escaped after the killing, but returned to Paris last week and was taken into custody by Patrolman Fred Link. He claimed to have returned to Paris to surrender to the authorities.

"WE KNOW HOW"

Even WE Admit

that there are more important things in the world than having the right clothes. We realize that, as the poet says, "A man's a man for a' that."

But, unfortunately, people WILL judge a fellow by the way he looks, and even more unfortunately, lots of fellows don't look as well-dressed as they might. It isn't because they don't want to, or because they don't try, it's because they don't know how or where to get garments that will bring out the best of them and hide the worst of them.

We don't say that we CAN, because it wouldn't be modest, but we're morally sure that we MIGHT show you a suit that would cause the first friend you met to congratulate you on your improved appearance. COME and SEE.
